The Missionaries of Charity invite you to join them in commemorating the 100th Anniversary of Mary's appearance at Fatima, Portugal in 1917. We all have prayer needs but our world, with all of the disasters and sinfulness, need our prayers too. Use this opportunity to come together as a family to pray for our world.

Pray for Peace

"At Fatima, Our Lady didn't ask us to go to Mass daily. She didn't ask us to make pilgrimages. She didn't ask us to read a lot of books. She asked us to do something that was easy and accessible to everyone—to children, to the educated; to the uneducated; each of us in our own way: to pray the Rosary for peace in the world."

Book Club

The Book Club has chosen to read Pilgrimage—My Search for the Real Pope by Mark K. Shriver. In preparation for writing this book, Shriver traveled to Argentina to meet with people who knew the Pope as a child, as a young Jesuit priest, and as a reforming bishop. The group will meet in October to discuss the book. If interested in joining us, call Millie Hines at 568-1140. All are welcome.
