 This month, the book club group has chosen to read, The Gospel of Ruth, by Carolyn Custis James. The book vests every woman's life with kingdom purposes and frees us to embrace wholeheartedly God's calling, regardless of our circumstances or season of life.

This story of two women who have lost everything contains a profound message: God created women not to live in the shadowy margins of men or the past, but to emerge as courageous activists for his kingdom. Join us at Millie Hynes home at 2:00 PM on May 30. For more information, call 568-1140.

How strong is your faith? When you have an opportunity to either defend or clarify a question about our Catholic faith, do you do it? Or, do you remain silent so that others don't think you are weird? Pray for the courage to be strong in all circumstances and to share your witness with others.

Scripture Class

Our Scripture Group meets after the coffee hour every Sunday in the rectory. New members are always welcome. For more information, call Mike Dellwo at 385-3522.

"What you do for the least, you do for me."

Help our homeless vets by making sleeping mats for them. Everyone can do something to help in the process. Please drop off plastic grocery bags in the brown bin located near the ramp door. These are used to make the mats. If you would like to help in the construction of the mats, contact Joanne Samuel.

Life Principles Academy
Saturday, May 19
9 AM to 2 PM
STM PACC

This is a half-day training event that equips participants to intelligently and effectively communicate human dignity and respect for human life using ten fundamental principals of happiness, logic, ethics, and justice. Boxed lunch provided. You will leave with a free packet of materials from Healing the Culture and maybe a silver tongue. For a closer look at the program and to register online go to <http://lifeprinciplesacademy.com/> Space is limited to only 100 people, so register soon.

Pentecost is next weekend. We will decorate for Pentecost on Saturday, May 19 at 10:00 AM. Volunteers are invited to help make the changes, which should be completed before noon. As always, thank you in advance to all who help with this important work!

Please join your fellow parishioners for coffee and donuts following Mass
